

Without Reservation: Course Reserves and Other Library Solutions

Whatever your teaching needs—a book, article, video, or any portion thereof—talk to one of our librarians and we'll help you figure out the most cost-effective option.

All the required books for DI courses are already among the print and e-books that provide convenient access to essential course information while saving students money.

We may already have just what you need in our Ebook Academic Collection, Academic Video Online, or other library database.

We'll help you embed the information in Canvas to save your students time and free them to engage in learning instead of searching.

You can contact the librarians through and submit course reserves on our website: library.plymouth.edu
